W.-Salem		3,008.83		2,836.23
Synod		$45,625.44		$39,466.99

A year ago officials at Barium Springs were in an ecstatic state of mind because of the overwhelming Thanksgiving Offering that had been received by December 31, 1936. While officials of the Home feel mighty good over that which has been contributed as Thanksgiving Offering in 1937, yet the difference between the $45,625.44 that had arrived on December 31, 1936 and the $39,466.99 that had come in by December 31, 1937 naturally has affected the feelings here. The actual difference in Thanksgiving receipts on the two comparative dates was $6,158.45, and that is big money in the life of the Orphanage.

The regular giving by the Synod for the first nine months was also less by the sum of $444.80, giving the Orphanage a total decrease of $6,603.34 by Synod for the nine-month period.

The $39,466.99 Thanksgiving Offering in hand when the books were closed last month doesn't represent all of the Thanksgiving Offering to be received for 1937, for quite a few reports were still outstanding the middle of January. However, all of the additional Offering will not amount to much more than $4,000, for a final estimated decrease of around $8,000 in the Thanksgiving Offering when compared with that of 1936.

Comparative standing of the various Presbyteries on their Thanksgiving reports for December of both years is as follows:

	Dec. 31, '36	Dec. 31, '37
Albemarle	$ 3,507.56	$ 2,163.54
Concord	9,303.98	8,218.80
Fayetteville	4,109.55	3,011.06
Granville	3,359.83	3,039.80
K. Mountain	3,775.19	2,929.26
Mecklenburg	9,778.45	8,694.53

Every Presbytery was behind its Thanksgiving responses a year ago, the differences varying between $90.94 less from Orange Presbytery to $1,344.02 less from Albemarle Presbytery. Other differences were Wilmington, $108.34 less; Winston-Salem, $172.60; Granville, $320.03; Kings Mountain, $854.93; Mecklenburg, $1,083.92; Concord, $1,085.18; and Fayetteville, $1,098.18. Attention of readers is specifically called to the fact that these differences are only as of December 31st, and are not compared with the final for 1936.

The standing of various Presbyteries shows a considerable shake-up when compared to that of a year ago, but only one notable change was observed when a comparison was made with the standing on November 30th of the current fiscal year. The Presbyteries were aligned as follows for the three aggregate received:

Presbytery	Year Ago	Last Mo.	This Mo.
Winston-Salem	3rd	1st	1st
Concord	2nd	2nd	2nd
Albemarle	1st	4th	3rd
Kings Mountain	4th	5th	4th
Orange	5th	6th	5th
Mecklenburg	7th	3rd	6th
Granville	6th	9th	7th
Wilmington	8th	7th	8th
Fayetteville	9th	8th	9th

The giving of the Synod of North Carolina, for its 83,005 members, averaged 10.2 cents less for the nine months of 1937-1938 that have gone by than for the same nine months of 1936-1937.

S. S. MEALS

Sunday Schools in the Synod last month sent $1,551.94 to the Orphanage regularly, but this amount wasn't sufficiently large for officials here to announce an increase in the Sunday School giving for the first three quarters of the year. As a matter of fact, the Sunday Schools have given slightly less—to the tune of $100.04 less than on December 31, 1936.

However, indications point to a

No. Organizations

Thirteen new Church budgets, 12 additional Auxiliaries and six Sunday Schools in the Synod filed their initial regular reports for the first time in December, for a net increase of 31 organizations regularly aiding the Home. The total of all is 258 Sunday Schools, 207 Church budgets and 180 Auxiliaries, divided in each Presbytery as follows:

REV. THOMAS C. COOK

REV. T. C. COOK ACCEPTS CALL AS LOCAL PASTOR

New Minister for Little Joe's Church Will Assume His Duties in February

SECOND PASTORATE

Mr. Cook Went to Salisbury Second Church from Seminary

The people at Barium Springs have been very much pleased since it was announced that Rev. Thomas C. Cook, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Salisbury for the past seven years, had accepted a call to become pastor of Little Joe's Church here. The Salisbury Second Church has concurred with Mr. Cook in his acceptance of this call and Concord Presbytery acted upon it at the regular mid-winter meeting of the Presbytery in the First Presbyterian Church at Concord on Tuesday, January 11th.

Rev. Mr. Cook, his wife and two sons will move to Barium Springs the first part of February, but Mr. Cook will not preach his first sermon as pastor of Little Joe's Church until the second Sunday next month. Before accepting the call to the local church, Mr. Cook had planned to attend the Sprunt Lectures at Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va., and the local officers were glad to consent to his carrying out those plans. Installation of the new pastor will take place on Sunday, February 20th.

When Mr. Cook revealed his intention at Salisbury to accept the call to Little Joe's Church, The Salisbury Post had the following comment to make on his life:

"Rev. Cook came to the Second Presbyterian church in August, 1930, succeeding Rev. Eugene Alexander, direct from the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, where he had just graduated. At the time of his graduation he was serving two rural churches.

"He was born in Richmond, Va., on June 12, 1899, is the son of Rev. James E. Cook, a Presbyterian minister now located at Bay Minnette, Alabama. He married Miss Rosie Mae Brooks, of Richmond, on August 28, 1926, and they now have two children: Tom, Jr., 6 and James Montague, 2.

"Rev. Cook graduated from his school in the spring of 1917, and in September of that year enlisted in the army at Fortress Monroe, Va. He was shortly sent overseas serving with the 54th C. A. C., Battery B. He saw about six months active service on four fronts: Meuse-Argonne, Shamaigne-Marne, Aisne-Marne, and St. Mihiel. After the armistice he spent about seven months with the army of occupation in Germany.

"After returning from the war,

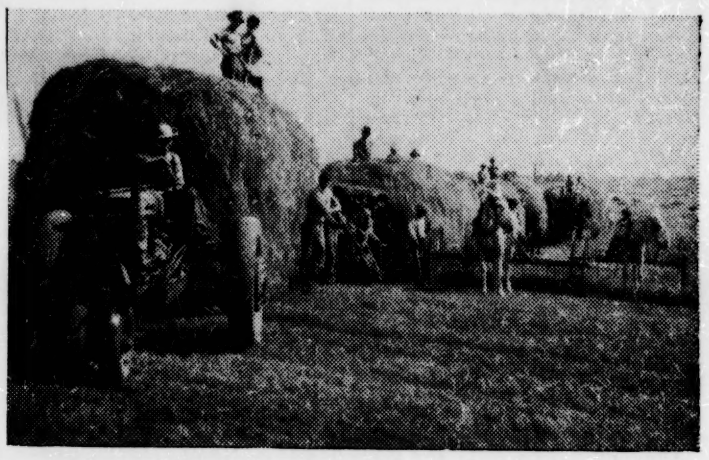
Good Hay Makes Producing Cows and Healthy Children



Above is the picture of a scene which occurred here last summer when several loads of hay were ready to be stored.

Making hay is one of our major jobs on the farm during early fall, so we will try to point out to you readers and friends how this is done at Barium.

Getting a good cure on the hay is one of our most difficult problems. In order to make hay of high quality it must be cured evenly, so as to have a uniform pea green color throughout. The stems should be dry enough, so, when a hand full of hay is picked up and twisted, the stems will break readily (but not brittle). Just as many leaves as possible should cling to the stems, for in the leaves we find most of the food value. When this is accomplished we have a hay which is very nutritious and very palatable.

Our methods of curing hay to make it of a desirable color, nutritious and palatable are simple. Cutting, drying, cocking, hauling and storing are the processes.

There are about 91 acres of land devoted for hay at Barium. This is cut with two horse drawn mowers and one tractor.

It is mowed from two to four times per year. After it is cut it is allowed to dry from one to two days.

There are two types of drying. One is the sun-dried; the other is air-dried. Hay that has been air-dried usually has a better color and more plant food. If too much direct sun is allowed to come in contact with the hay it will bleach out most of the plant food. This is avoided by a process called cocking.

Cocking consists of putting the partially cured hay in small piles. The object is two-fold: It reduces the surface exposed to the dew and it evens up the drying for the reason that the relatively dry leaves draw water from the moist stems. Cocking also reduces the amount of bleaching. If the hay happens to get rained on while it is cocked it is spread out to dry and then repiled. When this happens the hay is usually damaged some.

Caution is taken to never handle partially cured hay while wet with dew or rain. The surface of the hay, if laying in a pile, is the part which was best cured before the rain or dew. It is in the best position to dry promptly. If stirred before the surface is dry, the surface moisture would come in contact with the dried hay beneath, by which it would be readily absorbed.

After the hay is cured it is loaded by hand in loads from one to three tons per load and hauled to the barn and stored in a dry loft, so as to preserve its qualities for winter feeding.

We cannot afford to deprive our cows of good hay, because we cannot afford to be deprived of lots of good milk.

News About the Alumni

Jerrell Norman Killed

Just as we were going to press with The Barium Messenger on January 15th, the following wire was received from Mrs. Laura Lee Norman Todd, in Washington, D. C., "Jerrel was killed in an accident last night." No details were available about his death; simply that wire from his sister. The news of Jerrell's death was a shock to many people at the Orphanage who knew him. He was here last Home-Coming Day, November 26th, with his two sisters from Washington. Jerrell left the Orphanage in 1932. Deep sympathy is expressed to his bereaved ones. Two sisters live in Washington, Ray Norman is a student at Appalachian Teachers College at Boone and two of his brothers, Hugh and Pleas Norman, are still at Barium.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. M. P Wright, of Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Elsie Elaine, on October 10th. Mrs. Wright is the former Elsie Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S Pendergrast, of Chapel Hill, announce the birth of a daughter, Kristi Louise, on November 8th. Mrs. Pendergrast is the former Louise McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fort, of Greensboro, announce the birth of a daughter, Bennie Marie, on December 31st. Mr. Fort is a graduate of the Orphanage.

Marriage Announced

Do you recognize any of the children in these pictures? Lower left is James Hannon as a youngster at Barium and in the group picture above him, the little girl on the right in the bottom row is Lois Mott and those with her are members of her family. We dug back among some dusty cuts to locate the panel with James and Lois, because these two were married in Wilmington, N. C. on Tuesday, December 28, 1937. It is a romance which started at the Orphanage, James finishing at Ba-

Some Cottage News

BABY COTTAGE

Time for news seems to come as soon as we finish writing for last time.

Dec. 1—Some more of us went to town today to get some new shoes. We want to thank Mrs. Gordon Harrington from Broadway for the nice quilt she sent us.

Dec. 2—We were glad to have Walch, Thera Black, Margaret Walch, Mrs. Green, Rex, Bobby and Betty Jo Green from Sugaw Creek Church to visit us this afternoon. We are making our Christmas fruit cakes and they certainly smell good. We are beginning to think it is near Christmas by the smell of the house.

Dec. 3—Sara Fort, one of our ex-big sisters, came to visit us today. The rest of us went this afternoon to get our new shoes. Now all of us have nice new shoes and we are awfully proud of them.

Dec. 4—We had a fish fry today and Mama Girt invited her Sunday School class of boys and Mildred Eudy, one of our ex-big sisters. We all enjoyed it and had a good time.

Dec. 5—The weather was rainy and rather gloomy but just the same we went to Sunday School and Church to hear another of Mr. Hanna's wonderful sermons taken from Mark 8:38.

Dec. 6—One of our little girls, Lorena Hall, got her finger smashed rather badly this morning but we think it is going to get along nicely. We had a little snow this morning, the first of the season.

Dec. 7—We had a nice lot of wash cloths from Mt. Pisgah Church in Fayetteville Presbytery today. Many thanks. We also had a nice big cushion for our sleeping ward. Tonight is haircutting night. It is awful cold to get your hair cut short, but we think we look better.

Dec. 8—Going to breakfast this morning we saw our first snow on the ground, although it was only a small one.

Dec. 9—We are sure that Mrs. O'Kelly had a nice trip to Charlotte with Mr. and Mrs. Grier.

Dec. 10—Miss Goodman, from Mt. Ulla came to see us this afternoon and brought Mama Girt and Ray a jar of fruit. Mrs. Brookside came to take Betty and Jack Williams to have supper with their mother. Jack couldn't go because he was at the Infirmary. Tonight we had the football banquet and Miss McKethan, being a teacher, and Marie Smith, one of our big girls, being a senior, were invited.

Dec. 11—We got to put our play things in our new boxes. We certainly do appreciate them and want to thank Mr. Johnston and Mr. Irvin for making it possible for us to have them. We hope to get our Christmas tree before long.

Dec. 16—Ray and Melva Powell's father sent us a set of lights for our Xmas tree and we certainly do thank him. We know that we will enjoy the suckers that Mrs. Barbee sent us from High Point.

Dec. 17—This was just a usual day for us at the Baby Cottage. Mama took us to town with her this morning and we saw Santa Claus. We told him not to forget us Christmas.

Dec. 18—Mrs. White and Mrs. McClelland from Mooresville came to visit us this morning and brought us some oranges. They also brought Douglas Davis a mechanical toy and some other things. We are sure we will enjoy them and want to thank you very much.

Dec. 19—Mr. Hanna preached a good sermon today. This afternoon some ladies from Sugaw Creek Church paid us a visit. We enjoyed the Christmas pageant given tonight.

Dec. 25—Mama McGirt and Mama O'Kelly made Christmas candy today. Mama Girt's children and grand-children came to see her Christmas eve. Helen Prices's mother came to see her. Here are some things that we got for Christmas: dolls, teasets, doll carriages, trains, cars, trucks, drums, footballs, balls, tractors, story books, picture books, paint books, fruit, nuts, candy and many more nice things. The following had visits from their people or friends: Ray and Melva Powell, Helen, Hilda and Paul Barnes; Kenneth Mayhew, Bobby Morrow, Tommy Rhyne, Bobby Allen, Jackie Williams, Francis Strickland and Marie Smith.

On Christmas day Mama Girt and her children gave us all a nice dinner. On Sunday we still had turkey and other nice things left so Mr. and Mrs. Grier and Miss Moore were invited to dinner. Well, Monday night it was raining so hard that Mama and the big girls fixed us what we thought was the last meal we had with the turkey. We certainly enjoyed the turkey while it lasted.

Good bye until next month.

RUMPLE HALL

Hello Friends,

It has been such a long time since we wrote you last but we still we have a lot of news for you.

We all did have a nice Christmas and hope all of our friends did, too. We had Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Purdy, and Elizabeth Robards' mother and three of our boys, Clarence Robards, Walter Mott, and Nelson Farmer who handed out the packages.

We want to thank Mr. Sams for inviting us to see "New Faces of 1937" and "Nothing Sacred." We sure did enjoy them.

For the month of December Lorene Brown, Lillie Bryant, Elaine Faircloth, and Emma Eudy got the prize for the best kept rooms.

Elaine Faircloth, one of our girls, got a basketball for Christmas and we have been practicing basketball this week.

Every one of us had a physical examination and all of our girls were quite healthy.

Elizabeth Robards had a nice visit from her mother. Bertha Lee Broome had a visit from Mrs. Bigham and her two daughters and Miss Louise Kumm and Ruby Gibson from Hunterville.

Well we had such a good Christmas we ought to be ready for school tomorrow.

This is the dishwashers signing off for this time.

Your friend,
Margaret Presnell

HOWARD COTTAGE

We had a fine Christmas. Santa was good to us and brought us lots of nice things.

We have had a lot of fun with our skates and games during the holidays.

Arabella Gray, Marie Morgan, Mae Allen Barrett, Leona Hall, Jacquelin Newnam, Betty Adams, Toni Delancey and Marion Coffey have had visits from their people during the holidays. Edith Powell's father came and brought us some pecans and we thank him very much.

Mr. Sams invited us to a picture show last week and we enjoyed it a lot.

We will start back to school January fourth.

SYNOD COTTAGE

Dear friends,

Since you heard from us last, Santa has visited us. He was very nice to all of us and we appreciate everything. We wish to thank all of our friends who made it possible.

On January 4th we again returned to our books at school. We are all glad to welcome the teachers back on the campus.

Belk's Department Store in Statesville has sent us many nice things. Among them were three scooters. We all enjoy taking time about riding on them.

Our sidewalk is certainly busy with skates. Altogether we have received many bumps and we take them and keep on trying.

We have had our annual examination from head to toe. Of course some of us are going to have our tonsils removed or a tooth pulled, but other than that we were alright.

Signing off until next month, rium in 1933 and Lois a year later. James has been with the Marines for some time, and Lois has been working in Wilmington. They are residing in Norfolk, Va.

Other Alumni Items

Back in November we received a letter from Mrs. H. R. Gardner, (formerly Lottie Turner) Box 1148, Wilmington, in which she enclosed a check which her brother, Robert L. Turner, was sending to the Orphanage as his Thanksgiving Offering. Mrs. Gardner made her offering through the channels of the church of which she is a member in Wilmington. At the time of Mrs. Gardner's letter, her brother was in the country of Turkey in which he was doing some work as a marine engineer until the first of this year, and she wrote, "My brother is seldom in port long enough to attend to any business so I do it for him." Mrs. Gardner left Barium in 1911 and her brother in 1912. Mrs. Gardner told us that she graduated from Louisburg College in 1914, taught school for two years, worked in Wilmington for five and a half years and was then married. She has two little girls in Junior high school.

Among other things, Mrs. Gardner also said in her letter, "I am so happy that you were able to pay off the debt on the Home and I earnestly hope that the Offering this year will be sufficient for all your needs. I, of course, feel very close to that cause since it has done so much for me. I could never repay what I owe for the care and training which I received."

Eston Lackey, son of Mrs. J. D. Lackey, who is in charge of the laundry at Barium Springs, made his letter as a member of the Georgia Tech varsity football team this past fall. Eston did this, too, despite two leg operations during the season. He played in 300 out of the 600 minutes that the Georgia Tech team performed. Eston graduated from Barium and attended Shenandoah Valley Academy before going to Georgia Tech. He is only a sophomore at the Georgia institution and is following in the footsteps of his brother who was a star guard on the Rambling Wreck team. Eston plays a tackle position.

Christmas Time At Barium

While it is called the holidays, it is far from being rest days. There is something doing all the time, and usually of such a delightful nature that we all like to crowd ourselves with it. The gifts to the children, sent in from all quarters of the Synod, keep the first few days of the Christmas holidays one of delirious delight. Then, there is the business of getting mail. Every year we make a resolution that we are going to acknowledge personally every Christmas card that comes to us, and then we find that it is a physical impossibility. We are not attempting to list, even in the paper, all of the cards that came to the Orphanage and to the different members of the official family. We are just listing those from old Barium boys and girls. Here they are:

Laura Smith, Marion McCall, Pauline Shaver Kurdian, Ed Todd, Laura Lee Norman Todd, Sam Bernardo, Hilda Bernardo, Angelina Bernardo, Bonnie McKezie, Ruth Weddington, Marie Weddington, Myrtle Weddington, Mabel Weddington, Roy Wade, Carson Wood, Mildred Warner, Odessa Warner.

John Hunt, Kathleen Moore Radcliffe, Abbie Roper Dale, Nellie Culp, Lula Fields Zachary, Iris Henry, Jessie Roper Kendricks, Miriam Sanders, R. A. Beattie, Frank Purdy, Lucile Beck, Aubrey Clark, Hattie Morris Ellington, Jim Elliott, Pearl Bostian, Jane Lyons, Dennis Boyette, Sara Fort.

Wouldn't it tickle you to get cards from that many nice folks on Christmas, or any other time! Well, it "tickles us to death", and just makes Christmas the happiest of all days for us.

And then, we have visits from so many. Here are the ones that dropped in for a long or short visit during the holidays. Do you remember any of them? For the most part they are the younger members of the grown-up Barium family. We are delighted to have had them with us to help us enjoy this best of all times of the year.

Leonard Fort, John Donaldson, Robert Blue, Frank Purdy, Joe White, Dewey Barnhill, Charlie Sears, Clay Jessup, Fred Bowles, Hetty Abenethy Bowles, Lucille Burney, Walter Fraley, Thelma Fraley Lentz.

Paul Pittman, John Lee, Charles Gallyon, Ed Flowers, Roy Wilson, Julius Kinard, Carson Wood, Ed Oliver, Robert Gallyon, Cheek Freeman, Fred Elliott, Ed Burney, Bertha McKee, Olive Gaskill, Ben Morrow, Morris Freeman, Willard Drye, Oscar Clark, Paul Cornett.

To every one of those who sent cards, or brought themselves, we wish a year of happiness and prosperity.

he entered Hampden-Sydney where he completed his academic work and then entered the Seminary at Richmond.

"Since Rev. Cook has been in Salisbury, he has received three calls to other places which offered much opportunity but he declined the calls. Little Joe's church serves the orphanage of the Presbyterians at Barium Springs, has a membership of about 400 and offers a field of wide usefulness, particularly to the orphan children. Such consideration prompted acceptance of the call. * * *

"Rev. Cook is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, chaplain of the local legion post and was recently reelected president of the Rowan County Interdenominational Ministerial Association. Tolerant, modest and with much human understanding, his broad concept of doing unto others as he would have them do unto him has won him the affection and respect of his congregation and the public."

The church at Barium Springs has been without a pastor since last July, when Rev. W. C. Brown retired as local minister and announced his retirement from the active pastorate. Mr. Brown and his family have established their residence at Raeford, after spending over 12 years at Barium Springs. During most of the Sundays since July, Rev. George W. Hanna has acceptably supplied the pulpit and will preach here until Mr. Cook is ready to take over on the second Sunday in February.

The third and fourth Sunday Offerings were yet to be sent on that date, and a good many quarterly reports had not been received, as is usually true in January.

Salisbury Second, Bethesda (F), Erwin, Vass, Cramerton, Alamance and Clarkton Sunday Schools were the ones in the Synod to join the $100.00 Clubs in December, making a total of 33 Sunday Schools in that grouping on December 31st.

The following are the 33 Sunday Schools and the amount each had forwarded to the Orphanage through last month:

BASKETBALL TOURNEY TO BE IN FEBRUARY

Thirty-two Teams to Participate in Seventh Tournament, February 17-21.

The dates of February 17-21 have been set for the seventh annual Mid-Piedmont Basketball tournament to be staged at Barium Springs. Announcement of these dates has been made by R. G. Calhoun, school principal who is in charge of the tournament arrangements. Mr. Calhoun also stated that invitations would be mailed out the latter part of this month and they would go to aggregations throughout a territory that comprises 10 to 12 counties.

Thirty-two basketball teams will be chosen, equally divided between boys' quints and girls' sextettes. Sixteen games will be played on Thursday, February 17th, eight contests the following night, the semi-finals will be Saturday, and the finals will be staged on Monday, February 21st.

Defending champions will be the Dobson high school boys, who triumphed over the Mocksville five last February, and the Scotts girls will be defending their crown, for that sextette won over the Mocksville girls in the concluding tussle of the sixth tournament.

Each winning team is awarded a loving cup for its permanent possession each year, while another cup is in their temporary possession until the next tournament and becomes the permanent property of any aggregation that wins three tournaments. Gold basses are awarded the individual members of the triumphant teams and silver basketballs to the members of the runner-up crews. Four shooting trophies are presented to the girl and boy caging the most free throws out of 25 attempts. An additional trophy will be awarded this year to the best-dressed girl's team.

The Orphanage teams do not participate in this tournament, but act as hosts to the visiting 32 teams.

A big buck Indian had just ordered a ham sandwich at a drug counter and was peering between the slices of bread when he turned to the waiter—

"Ugh you slice 'em ham?"

The waiter replied, "Yes, I sliced the ham."

"Ugh," grunted the Indian. "You darn near miss 'em."
